Dear Jeetesh,

So sorry that it has taken me so long to forward this. I keep forgetting. Here is a brief posting for your website. I hope it is okay. I am not very good at writing these things.

When I met Jeetesh in a briefing session for our 40th Anniversary Gala Dinner where he was asked to MC I thought there is no way that this little serious businessman could be entertaining or funny. He certainly appeared to be the antithesis of Sanjeev Bhaskar the only Indian Comedian I know. Well we were blown away - once the first joke was cracked they started coming thick and fast. We certainly got what we were looking for - loads of humour and an unforgettable evening. A memorable 40th. Thank you Jeetesh!

Warmest regards,

Lorraine Macdougall
