

THE RELUCTANT MANAGEMENT CONSULTANT'S GUIDE TO YOUR STARS

Taurus

Taurus (April 20 – May 20)

The Sun is rising, which can only mean one thing: you've pulled another all-nighter. The night-shift security guards know you by name, your spouse wants a divorce and your children don't recognise you anymore. The good news is that you'll be handsomely rewarded for all your hard work with a $25 Amazon.com voucher!

Gemini

Gemini (May 21 – June 20)

The stars foresee unemployment in your future. Nothing clever here, but the high unemployment rate might have something to do with it...

Cancer

Cancer (June 21 – July 22)

The light from Uranus is glowing brightly which can only mean one thing: a nasty rash. Please consult a medical professional.

Leo

Leo (July 23 – August 22)

Leo's are a very entrepreneurial bunch. You'll resign your highly paid job as an investment banker and will invest your life savings into your dream to build a niche social networking site for plastic surgery patients called Faceliftbook.

Virgo

Virgo (August 23 – September 22)

There is movement in the organisation. People are being promoted but for you, the stars have a lateral move in mind – different title, more responsibility, more stress, same pay. HR remembered that in your interview you mentioned that you work well in a team, and a result, you've been re-allocated to the most dysfunctional team in the company. You know, the one that everyone points at in the canteen, doesn't attend the company picnic and attend trauma counselling sessions in pairs.

Libra

Libra (September 23 – October 22)

This year people will mistake you for Anderson Cooper. There is nothing you can do about this.

Scorpio

Scorpio (October 23 – November 21)

Astronomers will discover an Earth-like planet millions of light years away. As a result, your annual performance management rating will be poor. You won't get the promotion, the cubicle near the window or a parking space close to the front of the building. Sorry dude, that's how astrology works!

Sagittarius

Sagittarius (November 22 – December 21)

Good news on the relationship front – you will no doubt meet the man or woman of your dreams. Unfortunately, you've been dreaming a lot about Twilight, which means your new significant other will be pale, sometimes covered in glitter, broody and will be obsessed with Taylor Lautner's six pack.

Capricorn

Capricorn (December 22 – January 19)

By not reading the business press, not watching CNBC, not reading everything written about Warren Buffett, not downloading the Bloomberg app for your iPhone and completely leaving your stock portfolio alone for a year, you'll make the largest net return you've ever made!

Aquarius

Aquarius (January 20 – February 18)

Due to the complete coincidence of being born an Aquarius, you will suffer some misfortune this year. Sadly, you'll be iMugged – they'll take your iPod, iPhone, iPad and iBook from your iBackpack. The cool, white headphones gave you away.

Pisces

Pisces (February 19 – March 20)

To quote Shakespeare, "Something is rotten in the state of Denmark." It might be your tuna sandwich and egg salad that you insist on eating at your desk. So to get rid of you and your luncheon odours, your colleagues will lobby to get you transferred to Denmark.

Aries

Aries (March 21 – April 19)

Your decision to remain in accountancy will bear fruit – your company will give you a Blackberry as a bonus for helping to perpetuate the largest accounting fraud in history, until the next one of course!

If Today's Your Birthday

For your birthday, you will be lavished with gifts and glory! Included will be a 2012 Mayan calendar that ends on 21 December 2012 and an appointment to the high position of Minister of Finance for Greece. An appearance on the Apprentice and American Idols, separately, is also predicted. There's also a good chance that you'll marry a Kardashian.
